How Deserving Are We? The Lord your God is not giving you this good land to possess because of your righteousness. Deuteronomy 9:1-6

Sally remembers the day when her secondhand refrigerator finally broke down. As a young newlywed employed by a Christian ministry, she did not have much money to spend on repairs. Not knowing where to turn for reliable help, she called a friend in the electrical business. He assured her that he would handle the problem. Later that evening, she found a brand-new refrigerator in her kitchen. She asked herself, "What did I do to deserve such help?" It is easy to think we deserve the help that others graciously give us. When we are successful, we tend to assume that we deserve our possessions. Success goes to our head. It makes us proud and can even turn us away from God. Ungratefulness is a temptation for many today. If your endeavors are successful, let us make sure we are thankful to God for His goodness, help and protection – Albert Lee

"We don't need more to be thankful, we just need to be more thankful."
