School Activities

Are you ready? Joe loves to fish. One summer Bob invited him to go to Canada where a guide would take them to a special place that was supposed to have plenty of “big ones”.

After a grueling hike, they drifted quietly in a canoe on a beautiful lake. Loons screamed their disapproval of intrusion. A big black bear ambled out of the brush to the shore. An then an owl broke the silence with a long “Whooh, whooh, whoooo”, the guide stopped paddling and said, “did you hear that? The owl said, “drop everything and set up camp. Get ready for a storm,” When an owl hoots in the daytime, it means rain before the next day.” Sure enough that night it rained.

In Matthew 16 Jesus rebuked the religions leaders because they knew how to predict the weather, but they failed to recognize the obvious signs that Jesus was the promised Messiah. Later in the same chapter, He warned His hearers about the judgment to come. He said it is foolish to grab the things of this present world and yet lose one’s own soul for eternity.

Have you trusted Jesus as your personal Savior? Have you turned to Him for refuge from the coming storm? If not, drop everything of this world and ask for forgiveness today—It’s time to get ready.

“Jesus may come at any time, so we must be ready all the time”
